IMPROVED UNIFORM INTERNATIONAL SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

(By REV. P. B. FITZWATER, D. D., Teacher of English Bible in the Moody Bible Institute of Chicago.) (Copyright, 1919, Western Newspaper Union)

LESSON FOR SEPTEMBER 21

THE HOLY SCRIPTURES.

LESSON TEXTS—Psalms 119:1-4; II
Timothy 3:14-17.
GOLDEN TEXT—Thy word is a lamp unto my feet, and a light unto my path.
—Psalms 119:105.

ADDITIONAL MATERIAL—Psalms 119; Matt. 4:1-11; Luke 4:1-12; John 6:29-47.
PRIMARY TOPIC—The best book in the world.

JUNIOR TOPIC—What the Bible contains.
INTERMEDIATE TOPIC—The authority of the Bible.
SENIOR AND ADULT TOPIC—The inspiration of the Bible.

I. The Characteristics of the Word of God (Psalms 119:7-11).

1. The law of the Lord is perfect (v. 7). The law here means the fundamental principles which God as a moral being reveals to the consciences of men as binding upon the soul.
These principles are free from all omissions and redundancies, perfect as a moral code. It perfectly accomplishes its design, namely, the converting of the soul. The effect of the law of God is to turn men to God himself, to righteousness and holiness.

2. The testimony of the Lord (v. 7).
By testimony is meant the witness which God bears as to his attributes and against man's sins. This testimony is plain and infallible. Those who receive it are made wise. Those who with open and teachable minds receive God's testimony are wiser than the greatest intellectuals of the earth.

3. The statutes of the Lord are right (v. 8). His statutes are the principles given to us to fit us for the different relationships of life. These are just and equitable, because they are from the righteous God. They rejoice the heart, because the true heart rejoices in justice and equity.

4. The commandment of the Lord (v. 8). This brings into view the personal God who stands back of His law to enforce its demands. This commandment is free from error and deceit, and it enlightens the eyes. The effect of God's law is to give man ability, not only to understand his love and salvation, but to be wise as to the things about him.

5. The fear of the Lord is clean (v. 9). The reading of the Word of God produces reverential fear in the heart of the reader. Those who have this godly fear have their hearts cleansed from sin. The life and relationship founded upon this fear abide forever.

6. The judgments of the Lord are true and righteous (vv. 9-11).

By judgments is meant the sentences pronounced by God's Word.
These penalties are absolutely true and righteous; they are conformable to the intuitive moral sense of man.
These judgments serve as warnings; they prevent man's shipwreck upon life's sea and bring just return to those who obey.

II. A Prayer to God (v. 12-14).

1. For cleansing from secret faults (v. 12). Those who reverently study the Word of God realize in themselves the presence of hidden faults from which they need cleansing, and they cry out to God for this cleansing.

2. Kept back from presumptuous sins (v. 13).

The sins which result from proud defiance of God's laws need to be eradicated by God's special grace and help.

3. Words acceptable with God (v. 14).

The godly man is concerned with even his words and desires them to be under God's control.

III. The Inspiration of the Holy Scriptures (II Tim. 3:14-17).

Inspiration means God-breathed. By the scriptures is meant the Old Testament. If Paul's testimony be accepted, then the whole Old Testament is God-breathed, regardless of what the skeptical critics say. Because they are God-breathed they are profitable for—

1. Doctrine, that is, teaching.
2. Reproof.
3. Correction.
4. Instruction in righteousness.
5. Thorough equipment of the man of God for his work.

Love Endureth All Things.

Love beareth all things, believeth all things, endureth all things. People we love sometimes disappoint us.
They do things we never dreamed they could do. If we love them, we shall not abandon them because they have faults. We shall just believe that one day they will put away their faults, cease to do evil, and learn to do well.
Love never despairs of anyone. Love never faileth.

Of One Religion.

All humble, meek, merciful, just, pious, and devout souls are everywhere of one religion, and when death has taken off the mask they will know one another, though the divers liver-ies they wear make them strangers.— Penn.

When to Begin Kind Acts.

A more glorious victory cannot be gained over another man than this, that when the injury began on his part, the kindness should begin on ours.— Tillotson.

FLIRTS WITH RED AT TRIAL

Munich Communist Woman Casts Fond Eyes at Student Defendant Named Peter Neier.

Munich, Sept. 8.—The examination of the Bavarian communist leaders charged with the killing of hostages during the uprising last February ended with the taking of the testimony of the last two of the defendants, Voelkel and a student named Peter Neier. The last name evoked great interest on account of his relation with Lili Cramer, a well-known communist. She sat beside the defendant and openly flirted with him during the trial. He admitted that he received his orders to shoot hostages from Fritz Seidl, the former bolshhevik commander of the Luitpold high school, and transferred it to the Telhofer with his counter signature.
State witnesses testified again as to the alleged participation of Levine Nissen and Dr. Max Levien, the Bavarian communist leaders, and M.
Axelrod, a Russian radical, in every crime.

Explosion Destroys Property.

Coblentz.—Property valued at approximately 10,000,000 marks, sold recently by the Americans to the Germans, was destroyed by a series of explosions in ammunition dumps near Nieuwied. Among the material destroyed was ammunition worth 3,000,- 000 marks, which was sold to a German company for commercial purposes. Fire followed the first explosion and about 50 buildings scattered about a 40 acre tract, used for years by the Germans and then by the Americans for storing shells of various calibers, were burned. Thousands of large shells and millions of rounds of small arms ammunition which had been abandoned by the German army were exploded, but there were no American casualties. Six German girls employed in a dump were knocked unconscious by the first explosion.
They were rescued by American soldiers. The work of breaking up the shells was being done by Germans under American supervision. The cause of the explosion is unknown.
